SON OF SAUL
Nemes. In this searing drama, a concentration camp inmate tasked with burning the dead discovers the body of his young son, and must choose between participating in the clandestine uprising being planned among the prisoners, or securing a proper Jewish burial for his child. Winner—Best Foreign Language Film, Golden Globes; Grand Prix—Cannes Film Festival. “A stunning piece of art. It is unlike anything you have seen before.” —RogerEbert.com

BOB AND THE TREES
Filmed during a deep winter in the Berkshires, the film stars the real-life Bob Tarask as himself, a 50-year-old logger with a soft spot for golf and gangsta rap, struggling to make ends meet in a merciless industry. A Sundance world premiere. “A film you experience on every level; visually, auditorily, emotionally, and intellectually.” —Reel Honest Reviews

45 YEARS
How well can you really know your partner—even after decades of marriage? That’s the question at the heart of this emotional tear-jerker. Screen legends Charlotte Rampling (in an Oscar-nominated role) and Tom Courtenay star as a couple preparing to celebrate their 45th anniversary. But a stunning revelation suddenly changes everything. “Five stars! Surprisingly intelligent and moving. Rampling and Courtenay are superb.” —The Guardian
