NEW RELEASES

OPENING JUNE 30

THE BEGUILED
(2017, USA) Dir. Sofia Coppola. In the prize-winning new film from Sofia Coppola (Best Director, Cannes), a wounded Union soldier is taken in at an all-girls Virginia boarding school during the Civil War. Soon, the house is taken over with sexual tension, rivalries, and an unexpected turn of events. Starring Nicole Kidman, Kirsten Dunst, Elle Fanning and Colin Farrell.

"Coppola's best since 'Lost in Translation.' Nicole Kidman is on absolute fire!"
— The Playlist

PAINT IT BLACK
(2017, USA) Dir: Amber Tamblyn. In the bold debut feature from writer and actress Tamblyn, a fierce and painful rivalry erupts between a woman in the LA rock scene and the mother of her deceased boyfriend. As each grieves their loss, the two women become destructively entwined. "Tamblyn’s work is incredibly self-assured for a first-time director." — Nerdist

THE BIG SICK
(2017, USA) Dir. Michael Showalter. Family and religious tradition, plus a serious health scare, threaten the budding relationship between a Pakistani stand-up comic and his American girlfriend in this fresh, gut-bustingly funny (Mashable) rom-com from producer Judd Apatow. "The most authentic romantic comedy in years!" — /Film

MAUDIE
(2017, Ireland/Canada) Dir. Aisling Walsh. Academy Award-nominees Sally Hawkins and Ethan Hawke star in the true story of famed folk artist Maud Lewis who perseveres over physical challenges caused by juvenile rheumatoid arthritis to make her a beloved figure. "Richly layered, deeply felt... Ethan Hawke as we’ve rarely seen him... Sally Hawkins is perfection." — New York Observer
