NEW RELEASES

OSCAR SHORTS 2015
A fun and popular annual tradition, FilmScene proudly presents the Oscar-nominated short films in all three categories: live action, animated and documentary. Nominees will be announced Jan. 15, then see them for yourself prior to the Oscars telecast. Tickets will be available for each program, or buy a pass to see all three! “Thank the gods of cinema for this annual release of Oscar nominees.” — SF Chronicle

PIZZA BY THE SLICE
Looking for a new way to support FilmScene? Grab some ‘za for lunch, weekdays 11-2!

SONG OF THE SEA (2014)
Dir. Tomm Moore. In the enchanting new story from the Academy Award-nominated director of “The Secret of Kells,” Ben and his little sister Saoirse—the last Seal-child—embark on a fantastic journey across a fading world of ancient legend and magic in an attempt to return to their home by the sea. “Visually stunning animation masterpiece... a wonder to behold.” — Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

TWO DAYS, ONE NIGHT
In this “miracle of a movie” (AV Club), Marion Cotillard plays a young Belgian mother released from the hospital to find she no longer has a job. To regain her factory position, she has one weekend to convince her co-workers to sacrifice their much-needed bonuses. “Cotillard’s performance is as fine a piece of acting as you will ever see.” — NY Times

STILL ALICE (2015) Dir. Richard Glazer, Wash Westmoreland. Julianne Moore gives a Golden Globe-winning performance as a renowned linguistics professor and happily married woman with three grown children who is diagnosed with Early-Onset Alzheimer’s. Her struggle to stay connected to who she once was is frightening, heartbreaking, and inspiring. “Presents a disease that can devastate any family, anywhere, with great truth and compassion. Don’t miss it.” — New York Post

MR. TURNER (2014) Dir. Mike Leigh. A brilliantly directed exploration of the last years of great, eccentric British painter J.M.W. Turner (Timothy Spall, Best Actor, Cannes Film Festival), who spends his final tumultuous decades living by the sea. Four Oscar nominations: cinematography, costume design, production design, and original score.
“A rich, ruthless and profoundly compassionate study of life and love and art.” — Andrew O’Hehir, Salon

LEVIATHAN (2014) Dir. Andrey Zvyagintsev. From acclaimed director Zvyagintsev comes a modern day retelling of the Biblical story of Job set in contemporary Russia. Kolya, a Russian fisherman (Alexey Serebryakov), fights back when a corrupt mayor tries to seize possession of his ancestral home. Academy Award nominee, Best Foreign Language Film. “Absolutely fantastic! Not just masterful, but hugely important.” — The Playlist

AWAKE: THE LIFE OF YOGANANDA
(2015) Dir. Lisa Leeman & Paola di Florio. An unconventional biography of Paramahansa Yogananda, who brought yoga and meditation to the West. “To understand yoga as something beyond a workout exercise, this spiritual documentary could be a fine start.” — Minneapolis Star-Tribune

FOXCATCHER w/ DAN GABLE
Join us for a special, and final, screening of the Oscar-nominated FOXCATCHER! DIALOGUE Following the film, legendary Iowa wrestling coach Dan Gable will discuss training at the Foxcatcher facilities and what it takes to “go for gold.”
