NEW RELEASES

COLD IN JULY

PALO ALTO

LOCKE
(2014) Dir. Steven Knight. Taking place over the course of one absolutely riveting car ride and driven by an unforgettable performance by Tom Hardy, LOCKE is a thrillingly unique cinematic experience of a man fighting to salvage all that is important to him.

FED UP
(2014) Dir. Stephanie Soechtig. Is pizza a vegetable? Katie Couric leads this Sundance food doc, which tackles childhood obesity and makes the case that the food industry and government have acted together to change the eating habits of America. INTRODUCING a new healthy snack menu presented by New Pioneer Coop. “Informative and passionate.” — Newsday

IDA

EL TOPO
(1970) El Topo confronts warrior Masters on a trans-formative desert journey with his 6-year-old son, who must bury his childhood totems to become a man.

THE HOLY MOUNTAIN
(1973) A Christ-like vagrant thief wanders through a perversive and unfriendly land until he encounters an enlightened one for a spiritual pilgrimage.

IDA
(2014) The Sundance Film Festival selection also stars Sam Shepard and Don Johnson. Adapted from the Joe R. Lansdale novel. “A superior piece of Texas pulp fiction.” — Variety

THE BREAKFAST CLUB
(1985) Dir. John Hughes. Five archetypal high school students meet in detention, where they discover common ground. Enjoy a mimosa or sake glass with wine and champagne specials.

FATHER OF THE BRIDE
(1991) Dir. Charles Shyer. Steve Martin stars as the nervous father of a young bride-to-be. Also featuring Diane Keaton and Martin Short. Raise a glass with wine and champagne specials. TICKET INCLUDES a slice of wedding cake!

THE DANCE OF REALITY
(2014) Dir. Alejandro Jodorowsky. After a 23-year hiatus, the visionary Chilean filmmaker returns. Blending personal history with metaphor, mythology, and poetry, Jodorowsky reflects a reality that is not objective but rather a “dance” created by our own imaginations. “A triumphant return, which mixes autobiography, politics, torture and fantasy to exuberant moving effect.” — The Guardian

BLOOD FEAST

GODZILLA: THE JAPANESE ORIGINAL
(1954) Dir. Ishiro Honda. Still one of the greatest science fiction films ever made, the original monster classic has spawned six decades of imitations and remakes. Don’t miss this special 60th anniversary restoration on the big screen! “Magnificent! Visionary! A daring attempt to fashion a terrible poetry from the mindmelting horror of atomic warfare.” — Village Voice
