July 2018

Fred Rogers is the star once again in Won’t You Be My Neighbor?, a loving documentary about his life and lessons.
NEW RELEASES

WON'T YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR? (2018, USA) Dir. Morgan Neville. For over thirty years, Fred Rogers, an unassuming minister, puppeteer, writer and producer was beamed daily into homes across America. While the nation changed around him, Fred Rogers stood firm in his beliefs about the importance of protecting childhood. This film shows his lasting impact.

“Won’t You Be My Neighbor? is the documentary America needs right now.” — Birth.Movies.Death

HEARTS BEAT LOUD (2018, USA) Dir. Brett Haley. In Red Hook, Brooklyn, a single father and his daughter become an unlikely songwriting duo during the summer before the daughter leaves for college. After their first song becomes an internet breakout, the two embark on a journey of love, growing up and musical discovery.

“Truly sweet, funny, and downright likeable.” — Roger Ebert

EIGHTH GRADE (2018, USA) Dir. Bo Burnham. From comedian Burnham comes the story of thirteen–year–old Kayla (Elsie Fisher) who endures the tidal wave of contemporary suburban adolescence as she makes her way through the last week of middle school—the end of her thus far disastrous eighth grade year before she begins high school. “Very, very special. Thank you, bless you, Bo Burnham.” — The New York Times
